(2) For purposes of this section, "homeowner" means a residential occupant of a property who also holds an ownership interest in the property. A person who owns an interest in a property but who does not reside on the property shall not be considered a homeowner. The university is authorized to sell, transfer and convey the property described in subsection (1) of this section to certain homeowners and entities according to the procedures set forth in this section. The property may be sold without appraisal and without consideration.

(3) The university may designate the manner by which the offers to purchase property will be received, including, but not limited to, offers sealed in an envelope, offers made electronically or offers made by any other method that encourages community homeowners to purchase the property.

(4) The right of first refusal for the purchase of the property described in subsection (1) shall be given to persons as follows:

(a) (i) An adjacent homeowner sharing a common boundary with the subject parcel; or

(ii) An adjacent homeowner who agrees to combine the parcel where applicable.

(b) If no adjacent homeowner submits an offer to purchase, or if there is no adjacent homeowner, then any homeowner residing on the same street or block or in the same twenty-five one hundredths (0.25) square mile neighborhood as the subject parcel.

(c) The right of first refusal provided for in subsection (4) shall expire thirty (30) days after the effective date of this act. If none of the persons listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection purchases the subject parcel within thirty (30) days, then the university shall transfer the parcel as provided in subsection (5) of this section. No official or employee of the university shall derive any personal economic benefit from the sale, transfer or conveyance of property under this section.

(5) The properties described in subsection (1) of this section and any improvements thereon that are not purchased under the provisions of subsection (4) of this section shall be transferred and conveyed by the university, with the prior approval of the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning, to a community development corporation (CDC) that is a nonprofit corporation exempt from federal taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and that serves as an entity for the revitalization of the community surrounding the university. After the university and the board of trustees have reviewed and determined that the CDC meets all requirements of law for organization and operation, the university shall transfer the described properties to the CDC by deed or other instrument of conveyance and the CDC shall take possession of the properties within thirty (30) days after receipt of the deeds or instruments of conveyance. The property may be transferred without appraisal and without consideration.

(6) The CDC to which the described properties have been transferred may sell any portion or all of the properties, and the CDC may designate the manner by which the offers to purchase property will be received, including, but not limited to, offers sealed in an envelope, offers made electronically or offers made by any other method.

(7) The CDC shall first advertise notice of its intent to sell any portion or all of the properties for three (3) consecutive weeks by:

(a) Posting notices at three (3) or more public places located in the City of Jackson, Mississippi; and

(b) Publishing notices in a newspaper published in the county or some paper having a general circulation in the county.

(8) The CDC shall transfer fifty percent (50%) of the net proceeds received from the sale of the properties to the Department of Finance and Administration for deposit into a special fund that is created in the State Treasury to be known as the "Jackson State University Surplus Properties Fund." Monies in the fund shall be expended only for purposes approved by the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning that are for the benefit of Jackson State University.

(9) The State of Mississippi shall retain all mineral rights to all the real property sold under this section, together with the right of ingress and egress to remove the same.

(10) Any of the properties described in subsection (1) of this section that are not sold under the provisions of this section by December 31, 2019, shall revert to the possession and control of the university on January 1, 2020.

(11) This section shall stand repealed on July 1, 2029.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 2019.
